

More pretty girls within China (8) and why finding the right girl is important.

Here we continue, yet again, with more videos of Chinese beauties. In each case, the video is associated with a picture, and if you click on the picture, a video will open up in a new tab. These videos were all taken during the months of June and July 2020 within China, and posted by the respective girls on those dates. I find all of these ladies quite lovely and I hope that you, the reader will agree with me on this.

I suppose that I tend to post in clusters of related posts until I am tired of it, and the Metallicman audience grows tired of my articles. There's much going on in the world today. With Pompeo saying that "new" techniques and methods must be used to "suppress China", at the same time that two complete invasion carrier fleets are steaming towards China...

UGH.

Enjoy the pretty girls.

In China, people do not just build houses. They build complexes. Each complex will consist of a cluster of homes, come with one to four schools, a police station, fire, and a central administration center. On the negative side it is more expensive than in the USA, in the plus side is zero taxes.

This girl probably will be just as comfortable on Instagram as anything else. We have these kinds of chicks in China to. Where they live for posing and showing off a “perfect” life. Well, there is no such thing as a perfect life. It’s all a matter of perception. Keep that in mind.

My guess is that this girl is in a hotel. In China the hotels tend to have the same five-star ratings as the rest of the world, but it also has various “purpose” classifications. Such as vacation traveller, business, international, and sex. It all depends on the purpose and star rating.

This girl is in her home. Do you know what I like about her? Nope. It's something else. It's her cute belly. Ah. I do enjoy that little peek at a nice healthy belly. Her house is typical, with common curtains, and door, and walls. I mean, you can pretty much see this arrangement all over China.

Not all girls in China have big chests, but most women have a decent “rack” on them. However, some of the girls have these really, rather impressive all-natural checks that just defy imagination. I will tell you that I cannot help but stop by stupefied, dead in my tracks when one walks by.

Again, another typical Chinese girl. I enjoy the plain unadorned look, the nice healthy body structure, the oval face, the brown eyes and the long black hair. Notice also in how she takes care of her fingernails. All the more to scratch you with, I am told. Heh heh.

Again, another typical Chinese girl. This girl has a healthy build. Not fat, but not slim. Average. Again, as I have stated over and over again, what the Chinese refer to as fat, the rest of the world might consider to be trim and slim. I love her oval face, and no plastic surgery chin.

Gosh, I do love healthy happy and clean intelligent women. Here is another gal. Judging from the location, this appears to be at a park or some other public structure. Note how she is wearing plain and unadorned clothing that accents her fine figure.

The girls in China can also allow their hair to grow. I mean LONG. As in Looooonnnnnng. And I, of course, love long hair (on women of course), Here we can see this young lass with a nice set of long brownish-black hair, and oval face, and a very sweet demeanor.

Here we have another girl who is playing with Tiktok in the park. I do love women in dresses. I think that it shows off their wonderful womanly curves. Notice the nice oval face, and a decidedly brown hair with brown eyes. This is the kind of woman that I could spend a lot of time with.

Here's some young playful girls outside of a shopping complex or mall. This is all pretty typical, where girlfriends all go out together just like they do (or used to) in the United States. Just all ahving fun. Flirting with boys, and drinking some tea and grabbing a cake or sweet pudding.

This chick is more my speed. She's chilling out and drinking red wine. Which, as all Metallicman readers know, is my beverage of choice. With beer, white wine and VSOP coming in second. Of course, you also need so very delicious food with it. That's the formula. Sexy girls, wine, good food.

You might be under the impression that this chick is American because the walls are painted and not stone over concrete like most Chinese homes. But that's not actually true. Some homes actually do have painted walls. It's just that drywall is considered too cheap a material to use.

Here is a fine, fine robust girl. As I get older, I find that these ladies are just wonderful. This is the kind of girl that you could do all kinds of things with, from hiking in the woods, to dirt-biking, to traveling around the world, to just spending a quiet Saturday afternoon cooking up some spaghetti with.

Here's a good line up of Chinese chicks. You can pretty much see the typical body and proportions of the typical Chinese woman here. They aren't really over-the-top enormous in weight, or chests. They don't have enormous rear ends either. They are just fit and healthy.

This is another typical young Chinese lass. She has her hair cut. Probably to control the “split ends” that you almost invariably get with long hair. She has an oval face, brown eyes and off-black hair and it looks like she is in a hotel.

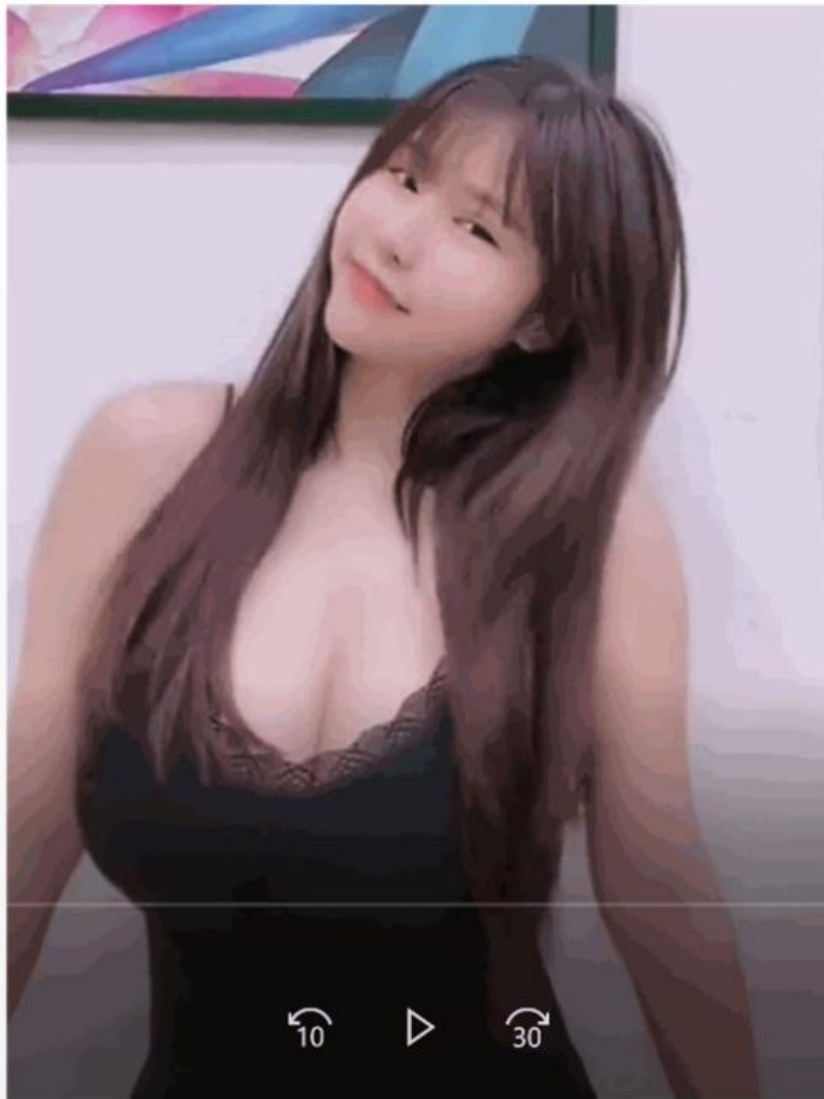

Notice the streets behind this girl. Clean. Right? Everywhere in China, except for the back rural roads, incorporates workfare. Street-sweepers and gardening staff. Instead of handing out free money like they do in the United States, the Chinese government offers them a job, a place to sleep and free food.

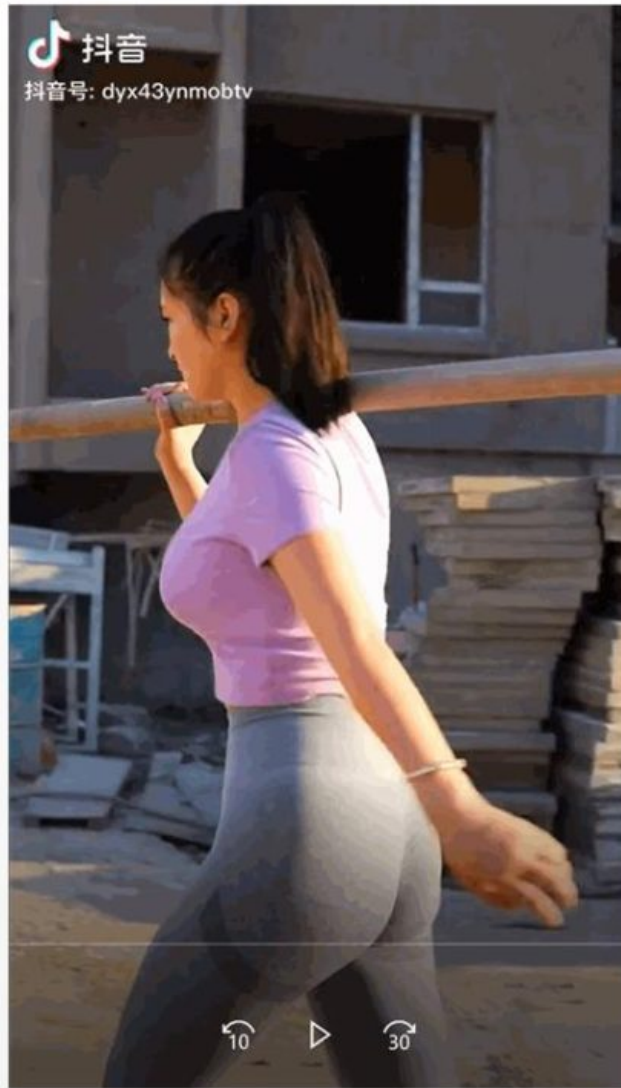

This kind of outfit is called “school girl”, and I find it attractive when it is worn by girls in their 20's and early 30's. Older than that, and it just seems inappropriate. I think that clothes should fit you, and for men, especially men like myself, that means well fitting, but loose clothing with great freedom.

Another great Chinese girl. Notice the fine “healthy” build. The great smile, and the oval face, and the plain but simple outfit that does not distract from who she is. I love her brown hair, her great smile and her happy disposition.

Here's a lovely lady that is wearing a short floral pattern dress. These short dresses are all the rage in Southern China, and when the girls wear them, they tend NOT to wear pantyhose. That is because the climate is way too hot to wear them.

China is a nation where slackers are not tolerated. You either hold your weight, be a good citizen, and work hard for your community and your family, or you can beg on the streets. It's either / or, and nothing in between. Here is a girl working construction. She's involved in a housing complex up North.

Here's a chick letting her inner faerie fly. Some gals love to play dress up and dance and sing. That's great. It is what Instagram is being used for in the United States. But, here in China it takes on a more and deeper meaning having to deal with history, culture, and relationships.

Another Chinese girl. Sort of looks like my wife's kid sister. Can you tell that these girls don't eat deep fried pork rinds, drink jumbo-sized chocolate milk-shakes, or eat a lot of sweets and cakes? They mostly eat a diet of fish, noodles, rice and vegetables.

Here's a great video of a typical Chinese girl dressing up in Han clothing. She's dancing and being very Chinese in the process. I find it terribly alluring, and very sexy.

Sexy?

How can someone wearing full clothing be sexy? Well, it's not showing bare skin that is titillating. But rather it is the way a person behaves while they are wearing clothes. For you women who do not understand that, then consider how attractive a man becomes when he wears a tuxedo.

Here's a girl. Not a woman. In a Chinese family with her protective pets nearby. And is what all this is about, isn't it? For us to find attractive companions so that we can form stable, long lasting families with. So that we can all work, live, contribute to society and love each other.
